JEROME ARRIVES CANADIAN LAWS AT SHERBROOKE

Thaw Apparently Not Terrorized by Coming of His Old

SPEAKS SNEERINGLY OF HIM

Prisoner Displays Temper Over Late Breakfast and Continues Erratic Statements.

Sherbrooke, Que., August 25.—The arrival of William Travers Jerome, Harry Kendall Thaw's old prosecutor. the assumption by ex-Governor Wil-liam A. Stone, of Pennsylvania, of the position of spokesman here for the and the injection into the case of re-newed talk of it assuming international aspects, were briefly the chief developments of the day in Sherbrooke ince Stanford White's slayer fled from

If Thaw was terrorized by Jerome's stated that his lawyers reissue a sum- months I gave him employment, of Jerome's remarks made in when he said that no one had contended Thaw was insane. "From Mr. Austin 1 heard much of "From Mr. Austin 1 heard much of the rest breakfast was ten minutes with counsel and me, and one thing late and his continued erratic state-ments relative to plans for the publicity campaign which he regards as possibility of an international in the case came when ex-Goverraised the point that a Caembroiled in the Dominion's before Thaw leaves Canadian soil."

"Thaw's fellow citizens would be shocked if Canada yielded where an other State in the United States would other State in the work as charges in selves as to whether they shared Mr.

the procedure outlined last week would be followed; that of arraigning Thaw in the Superior Court Wednesday on a crit of habeas corpus, obtaining his release on the present commitment, making a fight before the immigration board and then relinquishing to the American lawyers, if Thaw were deported, the management of the legal battle in Vermont.

be seen.

"That paper is of great importance to me I can't have it disturbed. As a matter of fact I'm not angry, but I am likely to be soon unless a news-a matter of fact I'm not angry, but I am likely to be soon unless a newspaper which was taken from my room yesterday is returned. If you don't get it for me, I'll get it myself."

The prisoner got telegrams to-day from two lawyers guaranteeing him security from extradition if he would come to their States. One letter was from Norfolk, Va. He also received about fifty letters of sympathy and tree advice to-day.

See Warrant Sworn.

J. H. Parkinson, chief of the Canadian Secret Service, accompanied by Inspector Geroux, arrived to-day from Ottawa, prepared to assist the immigration officials in arresting Thaw upon the new warrant which has been sworn out.

Immigration Officer Reynolds said to-day that in all probability Thaw will not be present at the hearing of the board of inquiry at Coaticook, and stitutionality of the Canadian immi-

MAY BE TESTED

"I'm not so tremendously opposed to going to Vermont," he said; "they are very fair people over there, and will allow no trickery to be used against Thaw produced a statement he had written out for a Rutland, Vt., paper, in which he reviewed his efforts to secure the release of a Vermont lawyer, Arthur Austin, from Matteawan.

Saved From Madhouse.

"In 1911 Mr. Austin, who had al-ready been sane for three years, was still in the most hideous madhouse, with apparently no hope," said Thaw, "In 1911 a friend and I started in to position of spokesman here for the Thaw family pending the coming of Roger O'Mara, the Pittsburgh detective and the injection into the case of renewed talk of it assuming internain Dr. May. Dr. May has since become one of the State Board of Lunacy.

"During these exposures we took out sane patients by write, and though my coming, he succeeded in concealing his self, it was great enough to help oth-feeling to all who visited him in his ers. Mr. Austin was one, and despite Again he spoke of Jerome sneer-the resistance of the first assistant, calling him "Willie," and in-Mr. Austin was freed. For several excitement—exciting principally because of what might happen—was is sure, no subterfuge from New York County will pull wool over their eyes. campaign which he regards as important than any legal aspect that there is not the least doubt that their immigration guthorities, if they should be called on, would arrange for me to return home. If the States have differences between themselves, they say, it is no affair of the Doimmigration law regulations States, once I was acquitted by a jury, one honestly respecting the law sires to nullify the verdict of that

American citizens before Canadian the trumped-up charge now whispered that the constitutionality of the drastite immigration law—a comparatively new one—had never been tested in the traordinarily frank speech, June 28.

marked

fast, Thaw had a clash with the old jail governor, LaForce, over two old newspapers. The governor started to newspapers. The governor started to newspapers. The governor started to pick up a sheet that lay on the floor. "Don't touch that paper," cried Thaw. "I was only going to remove it," and LaForce. "Don't be angry with said LaForce. "Don't be angry with "Mr. Thaw is a very eccentric man." Thaw took the paper from LaForce's hand. It had been folded so that a picture of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw could be seen.

Ar. Inaw is a very eccentric man. It would require many visits before one could attempt to pass on his insanity. Yesterday Thaw rambled in his conversation and seemed very ex-

The Steinway

In every civilized country of the globe the Steinway is accepted as the piano supreme in the musical world

Send for handsome FREE illustrated catalogue.

Walter D. Moses & Co. 103 East Broad St.

Oldest Music House in Virginia and North Carolina.

Sherbrooke jail until after his appeal to the Minister of the Interior has been decided. This should only require eight or ten days from Wednesday next, according to Reynolds.

TRENCHARD CALLS MEN FOR PRACTICE

Head Coach of Carolina Will Begin Training Football Men September 1.

Chapel Hill, August 25 .- Thomas G. ing and handling the ball on forward magisterial districts.

To Mr. Trenchard belongs the Exceedingly Nervous.

Thaw was exceedingly nervous this norning. When his breakfast was thought he berated the boy for picking the fall of '56. Mr. Trenchard belongs the peculiar distinction of being the first man to coach Hurry-Up Yost, the now famous Michigan coach. This was at the University of West Virginia, in the fall of '56. Mr. Trenchard relates up two towels that were on the floor, and when the jailer LaForce picked up a raper, he almost shricked: "Don't burgh team during that season when Jerome Arrives.

Jerome arrived in town about of clock this afternoon. He had been so rambling and the interpretation of extraditing Thaw he question of extraditing Thaw he vermont," he said, "will rest enterpretation of the sheet that his lawyers to-day made an effect upon his case that his lawyers to-day made an effect upon his case that his lawyers to-day made an effect upon his case that his lawyers to-day made an effect upon his case that his lawyers to-day made an effect upon his case that his lawyers to-day made an effect upon his case that his lawyers to-day made an effect upon his case that his lawyers to-day made an effect upon his case that his lawyers to-day made an effect upon his case that his lawyers to-day made an effect upon his case that his lawyers to-day made an effect upon his case that his lawyers to-day made an effect upon his case that his lawyers to-day made an effect upon his case that his lawyers to-day made an effect upon his case that his lawyers to-day made an effect upon his case that his lawyers to-day made an effect upon his case that he has granted have had such a damaging effect upon his case that he has granted have had such a damaging effect upon his case that he has granted have had such a damaging effect upon his case that he has granted have had such a damaging effect upon his case that he has granted have had such a damaging effect upon his case that he has granted have had such a damaging effect upon his case that he has granted have had such a damaging effect upon his case that he has granted have had such a damaging effect upon his case that he has granted have had such a damaging effect upon his case that he has granted have had such a damaging effect upon his case that Pittsburgh won, and Mr. Trench that Pittsburgh won, and Mr. Trench and says that Yost won the game all by himself. In those days there were few eligibility rules, and Mr. Yost was that Pittsburgh won, and Mr. Trench had been so that Yost was that Pittsburgh won, and Mr. Trench had been so that Yost wa ton every year to assist the Tigers. present the New York interests in "Yes, but he said that in the morn-purt.

Aside from the row about the break-purt, as the best coach for the poor of the local phy-end that they have ever had. Princeton Mr. Trenchard is regarded as the best coach for the position of Fourth-Class Postmasters.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, D. C., August 25.—The following fourth-class postmasters in Virginia were appointed to-day:
Semma L. Rodgers. Burnville. Bath County; H. L. Hunter, King George.
King George County; H. W. Watkins.
Purdy, Greenesville County; T. T.
Earles, Shale, Pittsylvania County;
Mary R. Barrow, Tree, Nottoway County; S. T. Dove, Accotink, Fairfax County; S. T. Dove, Accotink, Fairfax County; O. L. Dodran, Bachelors Hall, Pittsylvania Ceunty; Walter M. Greenwood, Bruington, Bath County.

Held as Fugitive.

Ira Culley, thirty-four years old, was arrested yesterday by Detective-Sergeants Atkinson and Krengel on the charge of being a fugitive from justice in Scottsburg, Va. Culley is said to be wanted for the alleged nonpayment of a note.

E. B. Barber, a lineman, was arrested by Patrolman Sweet as a fugitive from justice in Greensboro, N. C. He was locked up at the First Police Station.

Property Transf.

A. J. Daffron and to Mary J. Shaw a 1 four feet on Two Buinbridge, according bargain and sale regions of the property Transf.

Church Lawn Par For the benefit of the second second

∞ NEWS OF ∞ SOUTH RICHMOND

DEATH OF MRS. TURPIN Well-Known Charity Worker of Ches-terfield County Passes Awny.

Martha Porter, daughter of George M. orter, of Chesterfield County. Besides her husband, Mrs. Turpin is survived by one daughter—Mrs. J. W. Jeffries—two-sisters, Mrs. Howlett, of South Rich-nond, and Mrs. B. F. Tinsley, of Rich-nond—and four grandchildren.

ents. One of her sons, an engineer, killed on his engine in Washington D. C. The funeral of Mrs. Turpin will be will be in the churchyard cemetery.

Will Discuss Bridge Celebration

Plans will be formulated for the pro-posed celebration at the opening of the from the South Richmond and Chester-field Business Men's Association and the Chamber of Commerce hold a joint onference this afternoon in the chamber. The question is expected to be settled definitely at this meeting, as the date for the bridge opening is only few weeks off. If Councilman John V. Moore, who heads the delegation from the Southside, thinks the committee has accomplished sufficient to make its report, a meeting of the Business Men's Association will be called by Supervisors Hold Session.

The Chesterfield Board of Supervisors held its regular monthly meeting in Chesterfield Courthouse yesterday, the session being consumed mostly in the fore the body with a petition for more lights in the village. The county is now furnishing the illumination, and a larger appropriation was refused until the yearly budget is made out next December.

A special committee was appointed to audit the accounts and make running and starting the back field out a report showing the different crimmen will devote much time to kick- inal and civil dockets handled in the Plans are being made by the Man-chester Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, for a memorial service next Sun-day afternoon in Masonic Temple to commemorate the anniversary of Wil-liam Morris, who founded the order a paper, he almost shricked: "Don't burgh team during that season, when touch that. That paper means much to me."

Dennsylvania. It goes without saying pected. Rev. R. Y. Fair will preach the sermon. Special music will be rendered sermon. Special music will be rendered sermon.

Merchants Are Not Summoned.

While the stores of Swansboro reas interpreted by Squire 1. W. Cheat-ham, who last week fined the mer-chants, they were unmolested last Both sides can present their case thinks there has been a plot to pre-Both sides can present their case thinks there has been a plot to pre-Both sides can present their case thinks there has been a plot to pre-Both sides can present their case thinks there has been a plot to pre-grammer to do newspaper friends, but insists that his souri, and then found his way to to appear in court next Friday. Squire to appear in the case until the state of the pleases. The relations of lawyers had nothing to do with it.

After leaving West Virginia Mr. After leaving was all right. Mr. Yost the next year Sunday by the onactor.

Cheatham said that he would probable to the please of the please our States are uncertain in the matter of extradition."

Mr. Jerome spent the afternoon in conference with E. A. Conger, district Attorney Blakely, of Pitts-conference with E. A. Conger, district attorney of Dutchess County, New York, and the "would talk himself back attorney of Dutchess County, New York, and the "would talk himself back attorney of Dutchess County, New York, and the assertion of District Attorney Blakely, of Pittsburgh in '97 and '98 and Washing-ton and Lee in '99 and 1900. Since the County, New York, and others in Al
Cheatham said that he would protein ably take no action in the case until the case of Governor Sul
Back Torney of Cheatham said that he would protein the case of Governor Sul
Back Torney of Cheatham said that he would protein the case of Governor Sul
Back Torney of Cheatham said that he would protein the case of Governor Sul
Back Torney of Cheatham said that he would protein the case of Governor Sul
Back Torney of Cheatham said that he would protein the case of Governor Sul
Back Torney of Cheatham said that he would protein the case of Governor Sul
Back Torney of Cheatham said that he would protein the case of Governor Sul
Back Torney of Cheatham said that he would protein the case of Governor Sul
Back Torney of Cheatham said that he would protein the case of Governor Sul
Back Torney of Cheatham said that he would protein the case of Governor Sul
Back Torney of Cheatham said that he would protein the case of Governor Sul
Back Torney of Cheatham said that he would protein the case of Governor Sul
Back Torney of Cheatham said that he would protein the case of Governor Sul
Back Torney of Cheatham said that he would protein the case of Governor Sul
Back Torney of Cheatham said that he would protein the case of Governor Sul
Back Torney of Cheatham said that he would protein the case of Governor Sul
Back Torney of Cheatham said that he would protein the case of Governor Sul
Back Torne of Cheatham said that he would protein the case of Governor Sul-

Heart Fallure Victim Burled. The funeral of Thomas W. Atkins, of 114 West Ninth Street, who died suddenly of heart failure while walkand ing near Eighteenth Streets Saturday night, was held at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Cowardin Avenue Christian Church. tery. Mr. Atkins was prominent in fraternal circles, being a member of three lodges in the Southside. Com-The interment mittees from the orders attended the funeral in special carriages.

A. J. Daifron and wife transferred to Mary J. Shaw a lot fronting fiftyfour feet on Twelfth Street, near Buinbridge, according to a deed of bargain and sale recorded in Hust-

Church Lawn Party To-Night. For the benefit of the building fund a lawn parts will be held to-night at o'clock on the grounds of the Woo land Heights Baptist Church, Jap-anese decorations will be used, and light refreshments served. By the aid benefits and popular subscription. almost enough money has been raised to start work on the new church under contemplation. A meeting will be shortly called, it is understood, and plans formulated for the building.

Masons Take Third Degree.

At a called meeting last night of Manchester Lodge, No. 14, A. F. & A. M., in Masonic Temple, the third degree was conferred on three candi-dates. After the initiation the regu-lar business of the lodge was trans-Manchester Council, Royal Arcanum, held its regular meeting last night in Fraternal Hall. Relatives Hold Family Reunion.

Relatives of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Wright, of 800 Decatur Street, gathered for a family reunion yesterday afternoon in the home. Those present were Mrs. Charles L. Wright, Mr. and were Mrs. Charles L Wright, Mr. and Mrs Charles Shearer, and Miss Edna Shearer, of Anstead, Va.; Misses Helen, Clara and Louise Wright, of Port Norfolk, Va.; Misses Elsie, Mary, Jany and Louise Wright, Raymond Wright, Mrs. Frank Dickenson and son, Charles Dickenson, Floyd Wright, of Woodland Heights; Mrs. Rosa Bass and Orien Bass, and Miss Mattie Flourney and W. H. Flourney.

folk, Va.; Misses Elsie, Mary, Jany and Louise Wright, Raymond Wright, Mrs. Frank Dickenson and son. Charles Dickenson, Floyd Wright, or Woodland Heights; Mrs. Rosa Bass and Orien Bass, and Miss Mattie Flourney and W. H. Flourney.

Personal Mention.

Walter E. Duval, clerk of Hustings Court, Part II., returned home last night from the mountains, where he spent a part of his vacation.

Ashton Blankenship left Saturday with a party of Richmond friends for Mountain Lake, Va. Fishing and bathing will form the chief diversion at the resort.

Miss Mattie Ellington has returned home after a visit to relatives in Greensboro and Selma, N. C.

Miss Bessie Gill, of Skinquarter, Chesterfield County, and Miss Mary

Brooking, of Goochland County, Mrs. W. E. Bass and daughters have left for Afton Va., where they will

Mrs. John A. Turpin, seventy years old, well known throughout Chesterfield County by her charitable work, pleasant vacation.

WILL BE CIRCULATED

Law in California.

Los Angeles, Cal. August 25.—State Senator William E. Brown, author of the antiprize fight bill defeated by the last Legislature, announced to-day that initiative petitions would be circulated for the enactment of a law prohibiting prize fighting in California, those opposed to the enert heater beautiful. mond, and Mrs. B. r.
mond—and four grandchildren.
Mrs. Turpin was a consistent and devout Christian, and was active in church work. She was greatly beloved for her many kindly deeds in caring for the sick and other unfortunates. Although afflicted with many bereavements, she was never known to complain, but continued administering to the needs of others. Her two sons and daughters died in their early teens.

One daughter, Mrs. Quaries, left two small children, Nannie and Robert, who

GUILTY OF RETAILING.

Verdict Returned by Cumberland Jury
in Case Against Lawyer.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fayetteville, N. C. August 25.—James H. Johnson, of Hope Mills, a member of the court and county bar, was today found guilty of retailing by a Superior Court Jury, and entered a plea of nolo contendere to the additional indictments. Solicitor Sinclair accepted a nol pros in another case, and re-

THREE LEADERS IN CONSPIRACY

Sulzer and put him out of the Gover-warrant indictments in connection with the impeachment proceedings.

"This evidence in part is already in the hands of District Attorney Wait-man and the district attorney of Al-bany County. They are considering it. bany County. They are considering it. What they think of it I am not at Hberty to say. They will have more Breach in Ranks.

Albany, N. Y., August 25.—A possible breach in the ranks of Governor Sul-zer's supporters was indicated by the zer's supporters was Indicated by the statement late to-day of former Judge D. Cady Herrick, who leads the Governor's legal forces in the impeachment matter, that "counsel for Governor Sulzer have nothing to do with any alleged criminal proceedings against Charles F. Murphy, Senator Frawley or Assemblyman Levy, and are not pursuing any investigation of a criminature. pursuing any investigation of a crimi nal character against any one."
On the other hand, Judge Lynn J
Arnold, in New York, and others in Al-have been taken both in New York and Color is lent to the claim that Governor Sulzer is not only cognizant of this move, but entirely in accord with it by a statement given out at the executive chamber to-day by a man who has frequently acted as his spokesman. This statement asserts unequivodoped medicines?

Many animals die after treatment with doped medicines Tuesday and Wednesday. which are worse than none at all. An animal with a weak heart or run-down condition cannot stand being drugged What is a stand being drugged What is a stand being drugged What is a standard with a standard w they usually die.

your family.

are medicines-not dope. Be on the Accumulated deficiency in rainfall safe side by giving your animals these tested remedies.

Galion cans at $0.00.

Nosh's Kura-Gall Ointment for fresh cuts, old sores, scratches, collar galls, sore backs, and thrash in horses' feet connot be beat. 25c per can.

Sold by all dealers in Medicine Made in Richmond by Noah Remedy Co.

News of Petersburg

It is vitally important that your drinking water be pure.

Broad Rock Water has total mineral solids of only thirty-four parts to a million, and is bottled in an absolutely sanitary [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] the Petersburg Hospital yesterday for appendicitis.

Petersburg, Va., August 25.—A joint Public Schools to Open. meeting of the Board of Aldermen and Council was held to-night for the purpose of electing a Mayor to fill the vacancey caused by the death of the late George Cameron, Jr. Only one meeting of the Board of Aldermen colored, and brothers, were brought to the city late Saturday night in seriously wounded condition. An examination by Dr. W. P. Hoy showed that Joseph had received a stab wound in the right lung and a cut in the left side, and that Albert was suffering from cuts in the shoulder and abdomen. The two men claim that their wounds were inflicted by Kenny Balling, colored, with whom they had some trouble at Stop No. 57, near Swift Creek, on the Richmond and Petersburg electric railway, who drew his kinfe and the color of the State. Miss Ethel Pilcher and Mrs. Carrie Baskerville are new teachers in the grammar schools are Misses in the grammar schools are Misses. railway, who drew his knife and slashed at both. They were taken to the hospital for treatment. Their wounds, while serious, are not regarded as dangerous.

Police Court Sentences. The Police Court docket was a full ne this morning, embracing a variety Grandison Norris and Ernest Harris. colored, convicted of stealing a suit case of liquor from the store of the Jefferson Liquor Company, were sentenced to jail for sixty days each.

Joe White and Buck Heartwell, colored, arrested for stealing $23 from the person of Alfred Wyatt, colored, of Dinwiddle County, were each sent to jail for six months. George Washington, colored, was given a sentence of thirty days for ontinued from First Page.)

lot on the part of certain men I cannot name now to disgrace and put him out of the Gover shooting and wounding a boy in the foot. "Colonel" Roach, colored, was from the feet of one Charity, colored, fore competent lawyers and they believe with me that it is sufficient to warrant indictments in connection with change. For being drunk and begging on the street, William Jones, a colored blind man from Prince George, was sent to jail for sixty days.

William Budd, a well-known citizen and business man, is ill at the Peters-burg Hospital, where he was operated on last evening for appendicitis.

Mrs. C. E. Ridenour, -who was oppital yesterday, is getting on very favorably.

H. G. Walston and L. G. Terry, of North Carolina, were operated on at a cut in his leg.

SAYS SLOW SPEED

Was Not Moving Fast When It Ran Into Cable at Twilight.

rate of speed. I have no doubt but that upon which indictments are sought.
District Attorney Sanford, of Albany, to-day disclaimed any knowledge of any attempt to lay before a local grand jury evidence relating in any way to the governorship mix-up.

West Arrested for Reckless Driving. P. H. Martin, a farmer, was arrest-ed yesterday by Patrolman Tucker on the charge of recklessly driving a two-horse team. He is accused of colliding with a buggy owned by Wash Randall and slightly damaging it. No one was hurt.

West for Reckless Driving. P. H. Martin, a farmer, was arrest-ed yesterday by Patrolman Tucker on the charge of recklessly driving a two-horse team. He is accused of colliding with a buggy owned by Wash Randall and slightly damaging it. No one was hurt.

West for Reckless Driving. P. H. Martin, a farmer, was arrest-ed yesterday by Patrolman Tucker on the charge of recklessly driving a two-horse team. He is accused of colliding with a buggy owned by Wash Randall and slightly damaging it. No one was hurt.

Held as Suspicious Character. Sam Hubbard, alias Sam Hubdit. Sam Hubbard, alias Sam Hubdit. Sam Hubbard, alias Sam Hubdit. every one in it would have been fatally hurt," said S. W. Travers, of 602 West do you give your sick animals of light on the cable. There was no light on the cable. There was one

Did you ever think of that? THE WEATHER.

You should take as much care in doctoring your stock as you would your family.

P. M. Mean temperature. Normal temperature. Deficiency in temperature. Excess in temperature since March Accumulated excess in temperature Noah's Horse Remedies Deficiency in rainfall since March

Weather.
P. cloudy
Clear
Clear
Clear
P. cloudy
Clear
Clear Kansas City... Louisville Montgomery ... New Orleans ... Norfolk Pittsburgh Raleigh St. Louis ... St. Paul San Francisco.

MINIATURE ALMANAC. August 26, 1913. HIGH TIDE:

name was presented—Robert Cabanias, president of the Petersburg Builders and Supply Company, and he was elected by acclamation.

Joseph Briggs and Albert Briggs, colored, and brothers, were brought to the city late Saturday night in seriously wounded condition. Professor W. R. Smithey will be missed ers in the high school. New teachers in the grammar schools are Misses Dorothy Brown and Annie Lee Jones, of this city, recent graduates of the Harrisonburg Normal, and Misses Ruth Percivall and Fannie Smith, graduates this year of the Farmville Normal. All four are graduates of the Petersburg High School.

Two Marriages.

This morning, at the residence of the officiating minister, the Rev.' H. C. Gregory, in Adams Street, Miss Nannie Elizabeth Ratcliffe, of this city, and John Thornton Goode, of Richmond, were quietly married.

At St. Joseph's Catholic Church, at 9 o'clock this morning, Miss Rose Sadd and Joseph Teachek, both of Dinwiddie County, were married by the Rev. Father OFarrell. Many friends of the couple were present. couple were present.

Narrow Escape.

A citizen of Richmond and his family had a narrow, escape from serious injury last night just across the river from Petersburg. They were driving in an automobile, and were returning to the turnpike road after visiting relatives in Chesterfield recommendation. tives in Chesterfield, near this city.

Just before reaching the pike the car was precipitated down a slight embankment, but the top being up, did not entirely turn over. The occupants were thrown out, but fortunately were not injured beyond a few scratches.

Miss Otelia Eanes, aged seventy-one years, for many years a well-known teacher and resident of Ettrick, died this morning in Richmond.

will be brought here for burial to-

Automobile of S. W. Travers brought the car to an instant stand-

Special Local Data for Yesterday.

Noah's Colic Remedy is recommended for that most dangerous disease, Colic, and is harmless in its effect. Simple to administer, given on the tengue. Cheap in price -50c a bottle, and worth 250 to any stock owner.

Noah's Fever Remedy is a medicine for fever, coughs, colds, distemyer, influenza, lung troubles, and the treatment of milk fever in cows. Given m the tengue. Two sizes, foc and $1.00.

Noah's Liniment is the best eli-round family and stable remedy on the market. Contains no alcohol, chloroform, ammenda, naphtha, bengine, or poisonous drugs. 26c, 50c and $1.00 a bott e. Gallon cans at $2.00.

Noah's Kura-Gall Ointment for fresh cuts, old

Tampa Washington Winnipeg ... Wytheville

red lamp on it, but the accident oc-curred at twilight, and it was but dimly visible."

The road at that point was roing repairs, and the cable had been stretched across it as a warning. It was between five and six feet from the ground, and as the automobile passed under it scraped against the windshield, smashing the glass. Mr. Prentiss clamped down the brakes and "I think it perfectly proper," said Mr. Travers, "that a suitable warning be placed in a highway undergoing re-pairs, but I think it a bad idea to stretch a cable, and nearly six feet from the ground, across a road.

Held as Suspicious Character.
Sam Hubbard, alias Sam Hundley, colored, was arrested last night by Detectives G. P. Smith and Duffy on the charge of being a suspicious character, believed to have been guilty of house-breaking. According to the officers, the negro is thought to be guilty of several robberies in the East End.

Richmond Trust & Savings Co. Trustee.

Crimson Clover

Wood's High-Grade Seeds.

also makes splendid fall, winter and spring grazing, the earliest green feed, or a good hay crop.

CRIMSON CLOVER will increase the productiveness of the land more than twenty times as much as the same amount spent in commercial fertilizers Can be sown by itself or at the last working of corn, cotton or other cultivated crops.

We are headquarters for

Crimson Clover, Alfalfa, Winter Vetch, and all Farm Seeds,

Write for prices and Descriptive Fall Catalog, giving information about all seeds for fall sowing. T. W. WOOD & SONS, Seedsmen, - Richmond, Va.

Plan Your Bathroom for Comfort and Service

You are building now to last for years, if not for a lifetime. Why not have your plumbing so that to each member of the family it will render daily real comfort and satisfaction?

This does not necessarily mean expensive equipment-it calls for good judgment in your planning and selections. The fixtures shown and manner in which they are arranged in our showroom represent years of study and experience. Visit our showroom before planning your new bathroom, kitchen and laundry. You will find it fully worth while.

Virginia-Carolina Supply Company, 8-12 South Eighth Street.

